Governor

Proclamation

WHEREAS, the state of Louisiana has throughout history suffered the ravages of thunderstorms, floods, tornadoes, and other severe weather; and

WHEREAS, over the years, many lives have been lost and millions of dollars in damages and destruction caused by such severe weather; and

WHEREAS, population growth steadily increases the potential for loss of life and property from these natural hazards; and

WHEREAS, tornadoes and other severe weather often strike with little notice, leaving a minimum amount of time for protective actions; and

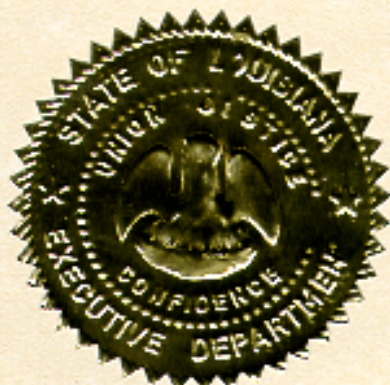

WHEREAS, experience has demonstrated that a well-informed and prepared public can better cope with and survive tornadoes, floods, and other severe weather; and

WHEREAS, government agencies, local businesses, schools, the National Weather Service, Louisiana Office of Emergency Preparedness, and others are ready to work with the citizens of Louisiana and the new media to inform the public of tornado and other severe weather preparedness and safety measures.

NOW, THEREFORE, I, M.J. "Mike" Foster, Jr., Governor of the state of Louisiana, do hereby proclaim the week of February 21-25, 2000, as in the state of Louisiana.
